

Mr. Gary Liang

Regional Director, North Asia, iGroup

Gary is North Asia Regional Director for ImaChek. He has more than 20 years of experience in Information industry. He worked for the Intellectual Property & Science business of Thomson Reuters.

He works closely with university professors, librarians, academic/corporate researchers, and government administrators in the provision of different databases and consulting expertise on solutions to support their research and innovation endeavors.